IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
TEST CASE NO.4 OF 2004
IN THE GOODS OF LATE RAMADHAR
****

10 21.01.2009 The affidavit of general citation which is at Flag-5 be kept on the record.

The caveat and objection petition filed on behalf of the near relatives no. 1 and 2 be kept on the record and the same be treated as written statement on behalf of the near relative nos. 1 and 2.

A vakalatnama along with no objection has been filed on behalf of the near relative nos. 4 and 5. The no objection and the vakalatnama may be kept on the record.

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

The notice issued to the near relative no. 3 has been received by the wife of near relative no. 3/B. A vakalatnama has been filed on behalf of the near relative no. 3/B along with the reply.

In the circumstances, notices should be treated to be validly served on the near relative nos. 3/A and 3/C.

The office is directed to convert the nature of the case from Testamentary Case to Testamentary Suit and renumber it as such.

Both the parties are directed to file issues arising in this case and give the list of witnesses whom they propose to examine and the documents, if any.

Anand (Sheema Ali Khan, J.)

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL